Location: Malkapur

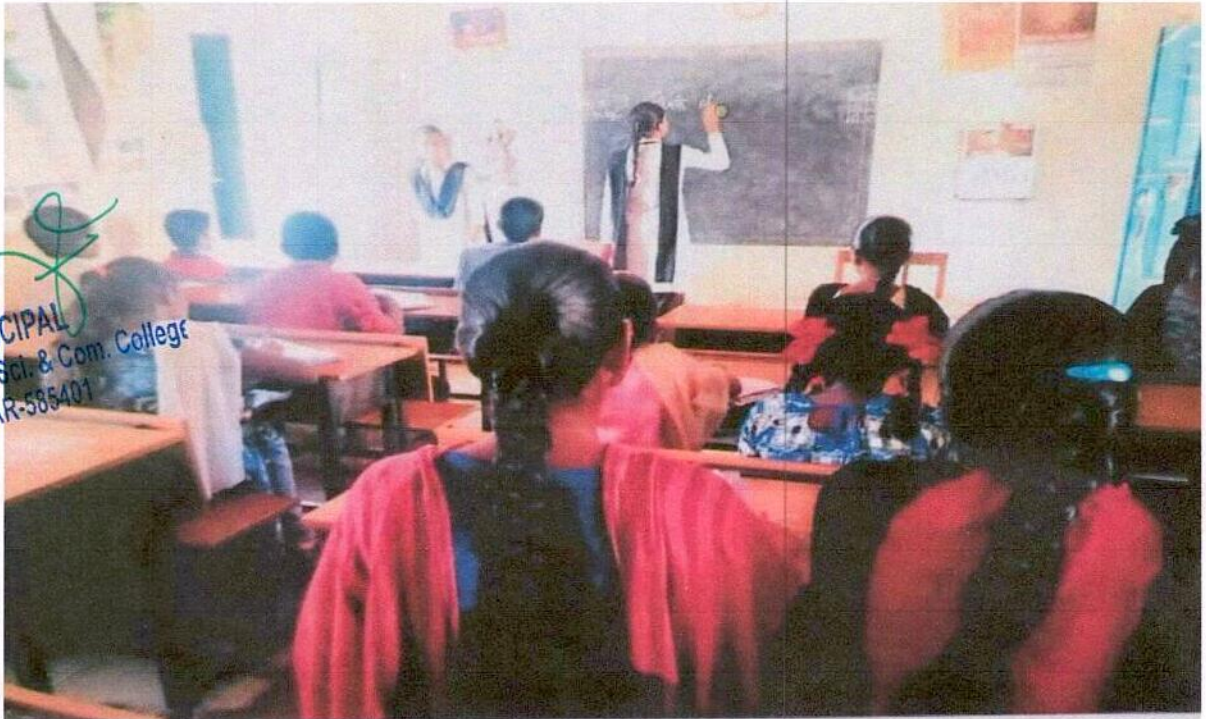

Faculty members of the Department of English along with 05 students conducted one week Spoken English and Grammar training from 15-02-2020 to 22-02-2020 for Government High School, Malkapur students. The students had an interactive session with the children they taught them a phonic song and also some basic grammar skills.

The activities with the students and the donation fall under the Spoken English and Grammar Training. A group of two faculty members Mr. Anand Malgekar and Shivarani student of B.A V semester engaged the classes for one week. Students are enthusiastically take part in this initiative of helping village students in improving the communication skills and grammar.

It was highly helpful and informative for students especially to those who were very poor in English grammar. After training they were given opportunity to participate in various activities conducted by our faculty and students.

Total 03 Faculty and 04 students have given training and total 40 students were trained under this training program.
