Report on Add-on Course (For B.CA)

Abstract:

The department of English had been given an opportunity to initialize add-on course for the students of B.C.A in addition to their regular curriculum. In this regard the department stiffly undertook this program to make a schedule, curriculum, time table and staff for the same. It was the booster for those in need of English language knowledge. The program started under the title "FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH".

Permission for the proposal:

The department had put the official proposal to seek permission on 10th December 2021 to start the programme on 1st Jan 2022. The Principal and management were so kind enough towards our proposal and granted the permission to carry out this add-on course.

Intake:

The program started with the intake of 60 students in B.C.A with the duration of 60 hours. The intake was quite possibly good for the number staff allotted for the programme.

Syllabus Formation:

The department under the chairmanship of HOD, the meeting was conveyed for framing the syllabus. Finally, after the deep discussion the syllabus for "Functional English" was framed. The syllabus included the Grammar, Communication Skills and Spoken English.

Time-Table:

The department had set down the time schedule for this programme by allotting two staff Members, to carry out classes apart from their regular time schedule, named Ms. Rajani Satane and Mrs. Ashwini K. Classes were conducted all six days of the week at 12:45PM. Monday to Wednesday, Ms. Rajani Satane had engaged the classes and rest of the days Mrs. Ashwini. K had engaged.

Exam:

The department has conducted the exam by following the proper exam protocol to find out the outcome of our programme on 1st July 2022 at 12:30PM. The result of the programme was 100% and it was fully satisfaction towards our efforts.

Conclusion:

The complete programme had run for 60 hours with absolute and proper framework. The department was rather glad enough to serve for such programme to the students for their language development. It was fully satisfied to our department by reaching students who were in need of English language knowledge growth.

Report on Add-on Course (For B.Com)

Abstract:

The department of English had been given an opportunity to initialize add-on course for the students of B.Com in addition to their regular curriculum. In this regard the department stiffly undertook this program to make a schedule, curriculum, time table and staff for the same. It was the booster for those in need of English language knowledge. The program started under the title "FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH".

Permission for the proposal:

The department had put the official proposal to seek permission on 10th December 2021 to start the programme on 1st January 2022. The Principal and management were so kind enough towards our proposal and granted the permission to carry out this add-on course.

Intake:

The program started with the intake of 60 students of B.Com with the duration of 60 hours. The intake was quite possibly good for the number of staff allotted for the programme.

Syllabus Formation:

The department under the chairmanship of HOD, the meeting was conveyed for framing the syllabus. Finally, after the deep discussion the syllabus for "Functional English" was framed. The syllabus included the Grammar, Communication Skills and Spoken English.

Time-Table:

The department had set down the time schedule for this programme by allotting two staff Members, to carry out classes apart from their regular time schedule, named Mr. Anand Malgekar and Mr. Masure Gautam. Classes were conducted all six days of the week at 12:45PM. Monday to Wednesday, Mr. Anand Malgekar had engaged the classes and rest of the days Mr. Masure Gautam had engaged.

Exam:

The department has conducted the exam by following the proper exam protocol to find out the outcome of our programme on 1st July 2022 at 12:30PM. The result of the programme was 100% and it was fully satisfaction towards our efforts.

Conclusion:

The complete programme had run for 60 hours with absolute and proper framework. The department was rather glad enough to serve for such programme to the students for their language development. It was fully satisfied to our department by reaching students who were in need of English language knowledge growth.
