Event Description:

The above entitled event was organized on 15th February 2021 via Goggle meet.

The investor awareness is very important for any person interested to invest in the financial markets. Investor Awareness is nothing but providing familiarity with the investment environment and understanding of financial market products, especially rewards and risks to make informed choices. They put the money in funds, stocks, etc. to help grow the market and thus, the Economy. It thus very important to protect the interests of the investors, investor protection involves various measures established to protect the interests of investors from malpractices.

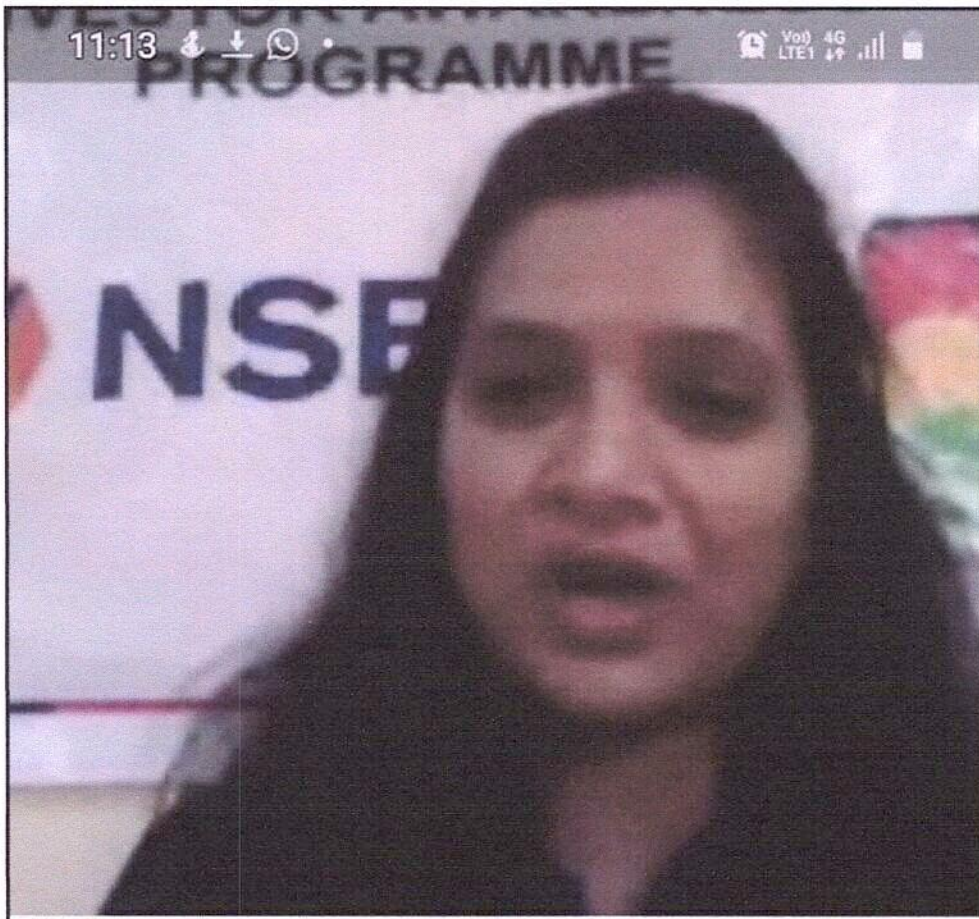

Investor education focuses on issues relevant to the education and information needs of individuals who participate, or are considering participating, in the financial markets. In addition, investor education can also help investors better assess the relevance and suitability of investment advice.

It was the online lecture by Ms. Priya Aksi. She has enlightened the special points about the invertors and helped those students who are interested in investing by giving proper inputs about investment.
